Mrs. J. J. Moore and daughter, Miss Rebecca, left Sunday to spend the winter with Mrs. Moore's daughter, Mrs. Virgie Nohl in Espanola, New Mexico. It is hoped the change will benefit Miss Rebecca's health.
Eph Moore of Conway, Ark. arrived Sunday to spend the winter with his father.

Miss Florella Minor announces a Judge Fred Lamb is a fair, impartial and just judge. Everybody who has ever attended his court will make oath to that; and besides, the judge is a gentleman in all that the word implies. He has, during his several terms as judge of this circuit, made a splendid record, and the people of the Twelfth Judicial Circuit are a unit in regretting that he is to retire from the bench.—Brookfield Gazette.

FROM THE SUMNER STAR

Mrs. J. W. Hardy returned last Saturday from St. Louis, where she spent a week attending State Chapter O. E. S. Mrs. Hardy came home by way of Columbia for a short visit with her son Walter who is a student in the State University.

Some bold thief stripped two big trees of Jonathan apples down on the farm belonging to the Star man on the river west of town. The thief certainly knew how to select good eating apples.

W. A. Ernst and wife returned Saturday to their home in K. C.
The junior editor and daughter Mary took them in the family Ford.

HON. JOE NICKELL

The Republican party in this the Sixth Senatorial District is fortunate this year in having for its standard bearer Hon. Joe Nickell of Brownings, and at this time it is a real pleasure for the News to present to its readers a brief sketch of our candidate.

Joe Nickell is a native born Missourian as he first saw the light of day near Brownings, Missouri, October 25, 1875. He received his education in the public school, Humphreys College, and the State University.
After finishing his education he taught school for fifteen years. In 1908 he bought the Brownings Leader-Bacon which he has ably conducted ever since. He owns and operates a nice farm which is located near Brownings. He has served the people of his city as Mayor, president of the school board, president of the commercial club and secretary of their street fair Association. Politically he is a Republican and was twice elected to represent Sullivan county in the State Legislature where he served on many important committees, while in the legislature he espoused the cause of equal suffrage and greatly aided in shaping the legislation which resulted in the adoption of the McCulloch-Morgan road law which has resulted in the building of hundreds of miles of roads in every section of the state.
And let us say: Joe is not only an advocate of better roads but he has often donated his working "duds" and gone out and helped to build roads.

Our candidate is a self-made man and has by his own efforts and commanding ability wrought mightily for the betterment of his city, county and state and is splendidly equipped to represent this district in the legislative hall at Jefferson City. Cast your ballot on November 7 for Joe Nickell and you will never regret it.—Linn County News.

Note: Mr. Nickell was here Friday of last week and called at the Courier office mainly to renew acquaintances. At his request we are publishing the above, and regardless of the party lines professional courtesy among brother publishers would demand the same. We have known Brother Nickell for years and are glad to extend this courtesy to him.—Editor.

FARMERS CAN'T PAY LOANS

Chicago.—Thousands of American farmers face bankruptcy because of their inability to pay their share of the more than 2 billion dollars in farm loans which fall due between now and March 1, 1923, according to J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

To prevent what Howard declared would be a national disaster, the farm bureau federation now is calling its 1½ million members into line for a drive to persuade congress to raise the limit of federal land bank loans from $10,000 to $25,000 before January 1.

In such an amendment to the federal farm loan act lies the only salvation of thousands of hard-pressed farmers, Howard says. If effected, it will enable them to convert the short-term loans soon to fall due, most of which are in the form of 5-year mortgages, into long-term, 5 per cent government loans with am-ortization provisions. The government loans have a limit of thirty-four years.

This amendment will receive the support of the agricultural bloc, which will unite for the passage of the measure as soon as congress reconvenes, it was stated.

At the same time, the farm bureau federation will urge the abolition, or at least a drastic curbing, of the joint stock land banks, which Howard declared were making a profit for private capital of as high as 20 per cent a year. The loan limit of these banks, the federation hopes, will be cut from $50,000 to $25,000, if it is not found possible to eliminate them from the federal farm loan system entirely.

IF ADVERTISING WERE STOPPED

Some people have always argued that advertising adds to the cost of goods, and that the firm that cut out this expense could sell cheaper.

It is interesting to think what would happen if all at once business firms stopped advertising. The result would be that the enterprising and successful store, the one that gets a good trade because it serves the public efficiently, would be unable to hold its position.

A store of that kind could not show enterprise in attracting the public, because the public would not know what it was doing. People would buy in a haphazard way, largely of the stores that happened to be nearest to them. If the enterprising store happened to handle some big lot at low prices, the public would not know that the goods were there and the sale would not be a success.
This would discourage a man from special attempts to serve the public, and he will run along in a routine way.

The tendency would be for a lot of small stores to spring up, and get the trade away from the enterprising people that now advertise freely. The public would not know that one store was better than another, and a man could charge high prices and the people would not have the store advertising by which they could tell what prices should be.

Merchants would find that it did not pay to hold special sales as the public would not notice them much if they were held. The constant stream of trade that has been flowing through enterprising stores would diminish. When a store sees its volume of trade fall off the charge per article for retail distribution has to be increased. The cost of distribution stuff could be expected to double under such a system and there would be a lack of the special opportunities by which the thrifty buyer now saves money.—Vinton, Iowa Eagle.

HOW BETTER THAN PILLS?

The question has been asked—"In what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is, they are easier and more pleasant to take, and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

JERSEY BULL MAKES ATTACK UPON E. SMITH

A vicious Jersey bull made an attack upon E. Smith, proprietor of the Chicago Stock Farm, south of town, Monday evening, and very nearly succeeded in overpowering him and trampling him to death.
The attack was made while Mr.
Smith was leading the animal back to the stall, after watering it. All the farm hands were away and there was no one in the barn yard except Mr. Smith. The bull got him down, under the manger, but Mr.
Smith held to the nose ring, and while the animal was worrying him managed to get his feet over the boards and by almost superhuman effort pulled himself into the manger and out of range of the bull's feet.

Although badly bruised, Mr.
Smith succeeded in fastening the bull to the manger, and reached the house. Dr. Olla Putman was sent for and gave his medical attention. He was confined to his bed for the next few days, but is recovering. He had a very narrow escape.

The bull has been troublesome for some time, and is a vicious animal having attacked Mr. Smith's sons and others on the farm at various times. It is owned by a syndicate of farmers and is a very fine animal, but has shown such ungovernable traits that it may have to be killed.

A REMARKABLE RECORD

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for colds, croup and whooping cough for almost half a century and has constantly grown in favor and popularity as its good qualities become known. It is the standard and main reliance for these diseases in thou-
